

North & Central Ulverston

- 4 51 Daltongate, LA12 7BE – Angela and Ian Hutt. A medium sized wildlife friendly garden with a lovely wild flower plot. Refreshments available.
- 5 22 Victoria Park, LA12 7TT – Pat and Ian. First opening. Small garden, overlooking Churchyard, with raised beds, pots and water feature. Constructed over 4 years and winner of the 2017 Charter Festival small contemporary garden category. (Map picture.)
- 6 Foxwood, Mowings Lane, LA12 7DD – Lynda and Brian White. A large garden with all year interest, pond and vegetables. The work of a professional gardener. Access via footpath from Sun/Star St, next to Health Centre (a good climb but well worth it). Parking at house for those with walking difficulties only (left at top of Mowings Lane).
- 7 46 Soutergate, LA12 7ES – Brenda Caton. Established terraced garden with many unusual plants.
- 8 4 Union Place, LA12 7HS – Clifford and Kathleen Bradley. Small forecourt garden with hanging baskets and window boxes.

Croftlands & South Ulverston

- 9 1 Grasmere Road, LA12 9BY – Wayne and Jude Evans. A low maintenance garden with a Mediterranean and quirky feel. A good example of how to maximise a small space. The work of a professional gardener.
- Park for next 3 at Central Drive Community Centre
- 10 44 Rowan Avenue, LA12 9HZ – Pat and George Appleton. A small pretty wildlife garden. Refreshments available.
- 11 14 Central Drive, LA12 9DL – Sharron and Brian Gillam. A medium sized hidden sloping flower garden with waterfalls.
- 12 4 Hillside Road, LA12 9LB – Kay and David Forshaw. A sloping garden with herbaceous borders, rockery and views over Ulverston.
- 13 104 Birchwood Drive, LA12 9NY – Jane Parker. Richly planted corner plot, with terraced roadside vegetables, front garden and delightful secret back garden. Wildlife friendly.
- 14 5 Appletree Road, LA12 9JR – Rachel and John Tarr. First opening. Unexpected, family garden with mature trees, herbaceous borders, vegetable plot and patio area. Refreshments available.

- ULVERSTON - OPEN GARDENS

ORGANISED BY ULVERSTON IN BLOOM

- 2018 -

Sat 23rd & Sun 24th June 2018

From 10am ~ Last admission 4pm

Purchase tickets on the day at any garden

Notes:

- Visits to gardens are at visitor's own risk. Neither organisers nor garden owners accept any liability for injuries, damage or loss, however caused.
- Please beware of uneven and slippery surfaces, especially if wet, and be vigilant for children vulnerable to spiky or thorny plants.
- Please do not bring dogs and sensible shoes are recommended.
- Gardeners like to share ideas and plants, but please DO NOT take

- cutting or flowers without permission.
- Volunteers are needed to help with 'Ulverston in Bloom', who coordinate this and other gardening events. Please ring Kim Farr on 480156.
- Anybody interested in opening their garden in future years please contact Pat Bentley (581518), Kim Farr (480156) or Martin Cooper (583524).

£3 per adult to visit all the gardens
children free

The organisers wish to thank all the gardeners who have kindly agreed to open their garden and to everyone who has contributed towards this event

- ULVERSTON - OPEN GARDENS

ORGANISED BY ULVERSTON IN BLOOM

- 2018 -

Oubas Hill/Booths Area

1 11 Oubas Hill, LA12 7LA - Janet and David Parratt. A varied hillside garden with views towards Morecambe Bay. There is mixed planting, a small orchard and a summerhouse; and a greenhouse with various fruit and vegetables. Janet is a potter with items for sale. Refreshments available.

1 14 Oubas Hill, LA12 7LA - Pat and Barry Bentley. A hillside garden with steep meandering paths, densely planted beds, ponds, patio and summer houses. A terraced front garden with vegetables, fruit and herbaceous areas. Children's quiz. (Cover picture.)

1 16 Oubas Hill, LA12 7LA - Vicky and Phil Allan. A well laid out garden with lawns, shrubs and trees.

2 Hamilton Grove, Oubas Hill, LA12 7LB - Helen and Martin Cooper. A large mature, structural and sloping garden from a terrace, through herbaceous perennial beds, to the now dry feeder for the Ulverston canal. Collection of scented-leaf pelargoniums. Refreshments available.

3 The Glade, Newlands, LA12 7QG - Paul and Alev Stoller. First opening. 1 km east on A590 from Booths. A medium sized garden packed with ideas, which will surprise; adjacent to the Newland Iron Furnace. Refreshments available. Please don't park at the Coal Yard.

- ULVERSTON - OPEN GARDENS

ORGANISED BY ULVERSTON IN BLOOM

- 2018 -

All gardens open from 10am with last admission 4pm on Saturday
23rd & Sunday 24th June 2018

Gardens will be indicated
by a large sunflower sign

